

FANFARE: HAIL TO THE VERY STABLE GENIUS

Mike Delaney, 7/14/20

This will be the opening scene for “Petty Dictator – The Mini Opera”. He is in the White House, and he hears “his song” in the distance. It’s “Hail to the Chief” but set in a minor key as a dirge.

He’s sitting in the Oval Office, eating cheeseburgers from his dictator’s tin pot and drinking diet cokes while watching Fox News on a big TV.

<spoken>

“Hey, what’s that I hear outside? They’re playing my song.”

<hums the first time through>

Hail to the thief, I’m a very stable genius
Hail to the sleaze, both disgusting and so devious
Bringer of grief, and I’m so disingenuous
(I have the best words!)
Yes, I am a very stable genius every day

I am the only one who’ll Make America Great
Again, Again

I am the one who is Vladimir’s best, best friend
I am the one who is going to make this country
end

Yes, I am a very stable genius every day

Yes, I am a very stable genius every day

Hail to the President! Hail to the Chief!

Lyrics that were written by Albert Gamse are set to James Sanderson's music, but they are rarely sung.
